

Women's History Month Panel

The women featured here were a part of Little Rock Air Force Base's Women's History Month panel at the Walters Community Support Center March 15. During the panel the audience asked questions and the panel members talked about their experiences in typically male-dominated positions, jobs or career paths.